In Belle of Belle Meade was second, and a 200-to-1 chance, Oriskany, was third. Not one of the choices was in the money, which speaks ill for the acumen of those who play races. Belle of Belle Meade, who showed so much speed in her last race, was certainly entitled to consideration. At least 20 to 1 should have been her outside price. Julia M. saved the day for the talent, but she only managed to stagger home a head in front of Agnes Brennan, a 20-to-1 chance. Aqueduct has a very promising plant in hand now.
